Dear Santa . . .

Members of the "city family" told the Pine Cone what to ask you to carry in your sleigh for Carmel when you circle over our pines on Christmas Eve. This year, their Yuletide requests are, more than is usual, written in poetic stanzas but that does not mean there's rhyme without reason in the desires expressed, Santa! Material gifts are somewhat less requested than spiritual blessings, please note. All in all, if the requests are placed in the stockings hanging by the city hall fireplace, Carmel will have a Merry Christmas all year, sir!

To all citizens:
The gift of listening—
to silence;
to the sea and wind;
to your friends;
to your spouse and children;
to the wisdom and intelligence that transcends intellect.

Mayor Steve Grant

Dear Santa,

I would like you to bring a revival of the creative spirit in Carmel, also the departure of speculative builders from our midst. In your sack will you place, too, more greenbelt for the city and more constructive criticism of its government by the citizenry of Carmel.

Lastly, will you bring us shorter council meetings.

Councilman Eben Whittlesey

(Editor's Note: Dear Santa, Eben's been a very good boy this year. He more than deserves his last request.)

Proclaiming what gifts Carmel needs for Christmas seems to me to savour of gilding the lily, for Carmel is already so gifted with the things that I enjoy that to ask for more seems a little presumptuous. In spite of tourists, building, taxes, zoning problems and all the rest of our petty troubles, Carmel remains the one place that all of us who live here love beyond all others.

Even so, there are things which we need, whether they be gifts or not. So for 1966 I do hope that Santa brings us a new dump site! This would be a real gift to the folks who live below and around Forest Hill Park which has reached the end of its rope for dumping, and an equally real one to all of us who will be paying some pretty fantastic dump fees if we don't find a new site.

And just so you don't think that my mind is always in the dumps, I also want Santa to bring us a lovely job of landscaping at the new police station and corporation yard. And I'm sure he will, with the help of Mr. Kearns, Mr. Smith and Mr. Askew.

And last but not least, I wish for all our citizens "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

Councilman Herbert B. Blanks

In days when towns and cities
ev'rywhere
Seek words of paid, "professional"
wisdom
From distant, doubtful, derelict
"on-highs,"
Let Carmel's leaders think through its problems,
Heed Carmel's own tested,
weat' 'd wisdom,
Steer Carm own steadfast,
valiant course.

This is my wish at year-end
'Sixty-Six
For the year to come—and the years beyond!

Councilman Gunnar Norberg

This Christmas 1966 adds an experience totally new to my life—the privilege to be on the city council and serve a community that incorporates all that is good. It provides a good life, pleasant living with friends and associates in an invironment that is the best in the world, and for which I am eternally thankful.

Gratitude is the very essence, indeed, of the Christmas spirit without which the future would be barren.

In a spirit of gratitude for Carmel's many blessings, we could approach the problem, perhaps uppermost in Carmel's immediate needs—parking.

As your councilman, our mayor has asked me to cooperate with you in relieving our parking problem. This, I think, is our most serious civic project. We need Santa's help and what he stands for in symbolizing a total unified effort on the part of every citizen. Let us approach this situation with a spirited request to him for help, thus indicating our sincerity to get the job done.

Through real cooperative action, next year we will be able to thank Santa for his help in making this year's request a reality.

Councilman William Sefton

In the true Christmas spirit, the city attorney would rather give than receive. Santa Claus, I hereby give you all of Carmel's illegal motels, our overabundance of automobiles, and all our little people that would rather cut down the pines than rake up the needles. You can also have the Fine Arts Gallery. If you need a local distribution outlet, we have a good deal for you on an old police station-corporation yard. That's all for this year. We'll have more for you in 1967.

City Attorney William B. Burleigh

Please make 1967 a quiet, peaceful and harmonious year for all of us; a year of continued prosperity for our city.

City Clerk, Hugh Bayless

The Sunset Commission would like—the most successful season yet for the wonderful groups that put on performances in the Sunset Center Auditorium;
maximum use of all the Sunset facilities;
steadily growing public interest in this, the public's own Center;
Carmel's reputation as a center for the arts to remain always bright—and justified.

Chairman Peter Dyer

Santa was so good to the Department of Public Works last year that I can't think of anything to ask for this Christmas.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Janet Lynne Cucinell, above, will become the bride of Zachary F. Lansdowne, son of Captain F. M. Lansdowne (USN Ret.) and Mrs. Lansdowne of Carmel, early next year. The couple's engagement has just been announced by Janet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Albert Cucinell of Westchester County, New York, and Clinton, Connecticut.

Miss Cucinell is the guest of her fiance and his family for the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Lansdowne has invited friends to meet her future daughter-in-law at a tea on December 27. Among the guests will be Zachary's grandmother, Mrs. Fenton E. Grigsby of Carmel Valley Manor, and Mrs. Allman Cook, who will preside at the tea table.

A junior at Wheaton College in Norton, Massachusetts, the bride-to-be is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert George MacKay and the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cucinell.

Zachary, a National Defense Education Act Fellow, is currently working towards a doctorate in operations research at Stanford University. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he was a recipient of a National Science Foundation traineeship. He was a member of Eta Kappa Nu, Tau Beta Pi and Sigma Xi honorary societies and belonged also to Phi Beta Epsilon fraternity.

He is the grandson, also, of the late F. E. Grigsby of Portland, Oregon, and the late Commander and Mrs. Zachary Lansdowne of Greenville, Ohio.

Reunion At Blanks' Home

The three sons of Councilman and Mrs. Herbert Blanks are converging here for a Christmas reunion. Bert, in his 14th week of OCS at Fort Benning, Georgia, will be here until January 1 and Don is home from Fresno State College. Buck and Lois, with their three little girls, are coming from San Jose to share the festive board on Sunday.

Welcome Home!

Rod and Helen Wilson are willing the skies to be clear and starry over Monterey airport tonight, when their son-in-law and daughter, "Mick" and "Niki" McMahan, are due to arrive from New York to spend the holidays with them and with Mick's parents, the Robert O. McMahans of Pebble Beach. If all goes on schedule, the Wilsons and their daughter, Sherri—home for vacation from UC Berkeley—will greet them, later return to the house for a welcome-home party.

Mrs. Stebbins Returned

After almost six months abroad, Mrs. Margaret C. Stebbins returned to Carmel just in time to ready her guest house for a visit from a nephew, Horace W. B. Donegan II, of New York. For the holidays, both the cottage and her house will be full with children and grandchildren. Robert Stebbins, his wife and their four children are arriving from Corvallis, Oregon, where Bob is a horticultural advisor at Oregon State University, and George Stebbins Jr. will be here from Los Angeles. Mrs. Stebbins' daughter, Edith Nahas, and her four youngsters won't be able to get down from Davis until January.

Going to and coming from England, Mrs. Stebbins visited members of her family on the East Coast. In London, also Westerham in Kent, she was the guest of old and good friends. Reunions with other friends in the British Isles, seeing remembered places were among things she enjoyed during her stay. A highlight she mentioned was an evening's entertainment, between midnight and 3 a.m., at the Victoria Theatre. The program of splendid performances by England's top professional entertainers was sponsored by Abracadabra, a group opposed to racial segregation.

WINS WINGS

Danielle Varlay, daughter of Mrs. Roger Gammons of Carmel, has won her wings as a Pan American stewardess.

The recent graduate of the airline's International Stewardess College in Miami will serve aboard jet Clipper flights from New York across the Atlantic to Latin America and the Caribbean resort islands.

Miss Varlay has studied and worked in Beirut, Lebanon, where she was an air hostess for Middle East Airlines, has travelled in Europe and speaks French and Arabic. She attended Beirut College for Women and the University of Pacific at Stockton and is a graduate of Santa Catalina School for Girls.

Happy Event Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Newton, part-time Carmel residents for the last decade, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary yesterday with a family party in St. Louis, Missouri.

Flying from Carmel to help them celebrate the event were their son, Dr. Robert E. Newton, chairman of the Carmel Unified School District Board of Education, and Mrs. Newton. Dr. and Mrs. Newton are returning today to be home for Christmas with their daughter, Peggy, who is finishing at Pomona College this term, and son Gary, a junior at Carmel High. Also joining the family Christmas will be Mrs. Newton's mother, Mrs. Alfred Fairbank.

Wedding In Mill Valley

Of local interest is news of the marriage of Karen Elizabeth Millis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Alfred Millis of Mill Valley, to Gilbert Pettingill Mansergh of Millbrae.

The double ring ceremony took place Saturday afternoon at the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley, with the Reverend D. Murray Hammond officiating.

Karen was escorted to the altar by her father, who grew up here and whose mother, the late Mrs. Vera Peck Millis, was a Carmel resident for many years.

Charlotte Ann Millis served as her sister's maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Virginia Mansergh, was a bridesmaid and his brother, Heywood P. Mansergh Jr., was best man. Seating the guests were Frederick Robinson, Jeffrey Bertelson and Jerome Barnum.

Following a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, the young couple left for a honeymoon in the San Francisco Bay area. When they return, they will make their home in Palo Alto while the bridegroom completes his senior year at Stanford University, where he is majoring in psychology.

The new Mrs. Mansergh, who attended Mills College, is the niece of Sydney Williams of Carmel Valley and the late Martha Millis Williams. Mr. Williams and his family were among out of town guests at the wedding, as was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Russell Leavenworth (Ann Millis) of Fresno.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Heywood S. Mansergh, attended schools in Millbrae and graduated from the College of San Mateo before enrolling at Stanford.

Bill True In Peru

People occasionally call the Pine Cone for the addresses of friends in the Peace Corps. A new one received this week is that of volunteer Bill True, who would no doubt be happy to receive Christmas greetings. Bill arrived in Peru around the first of the month, having completed his training in Puerto Rico. Though he is stationed in Calca, his mailing address is Casilla 4-81, Cuzco.

On Harvard Dean's List

Gregory Dahl is one of 37 Harvard freshmen from California who have been named to the Dean's List on the basis of their grades for the entire year of 1965-66. A student must maintain an average of "B" or better for this distinction. A graduate of Verde Valley School, Gregory is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dahl of Pebble Beach.

New High Twelve Members

Four new members who have been welcomed into Carmel High Twelve Club are W. Webster Downer, Brigadier General James H. Phillips (USA ret), John Greenwald and Russell W. Giles.

Mr. Downer, assistant manager of United California Bank in Carmel, and his wife, Marguerite, are Carmel residents. A member of Waco Lodge No. 92, Waco, Texas, he lists his hobbies as golf, gardening, grandchildren and grandmother.

General Phillips, chairman of the board of Monterey County First Federal Savings and Loan Association, with headquarters at Carmel Rancho Shopping Center, belongs to Union Lodge No. 7, Junction City, Kansas; National Sojourners Chapter No. 44, Arlington, Virginia; and Heros of '76, Seth Warner Camp. The retired Army officer and his wife make their home in Rancho Rio Vista. His hobbies are gardening and photography.

Mr. Greenwald, general manager of Mortgage Banking in Monterey, and his wife, Laurette, live in Pacific Grove. He is Past Master of P. G. Lodge No. 331, Shriner in Islam Temple, and a member of San Jose Consistory, Ocean Spray Chapter Eastern Star.

Mr. Giles and his wife, Margaret Ann, divide their time between their homes in Pacific Grove and Lake Tahoe, where Mr. Giles particularly enjoys hunting and fishing. A former Monterey County treasurer, also tax collector, he is Past Master of P. G. Lodge No. 331, Past Inspector of 394th Masonic District and a member of Scottish Rite and Eastern Star.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hately of Pebble Beach have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Joanne Hately, and Bain McMillan Smith, who was her Cotillon escort last year.

Barbara is the sister of Pamela, who attends Bradford College in Massachusetts, Sheila, a student at Santa Catalina School for Girls and Jonathan and Seymour Hately.

Mrs. Allen Griffin of Pebble Beach and Mrs. Robert Curtis Sofio of Piedmont are her grandparents.

Barbara graduated from Santa Catalina School for Girls and Garland Junior College in Boston. She made her bow at a ball given by Colonel and Mrs. Allen Griffin at Del Monte Lodge last year and later at the San Francisco Cotillion.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McMillan Smith of Carmel are the parents of her fiance. He has a sister, Deborah Smith, who attends Bradford College with Barbara's sister, Pam. His brother, Douw Hamilton Smith, is enrolled at the American College in Paris. He is the grandson of Mrs. Charles L. Smith of Carmel Valley and the late Mr. Smith and Percy Hamilton Kittle and the late Mrs. Kittle of New York and Salt Lake City.

"Biff" is a graduate of Shattuck School in Faribault, Minnesota, Menlo College and Stanford University. He is currently an English instructor at York School in Monterey.

A Very Funny Thing Is Happening On The Studio Theatre's Stage

by Duke Everts

A very funny thing is happening on weekends at the Studio Restaurant and Theatre in Carmel in the presentation of "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum." A musical comedy written by Burt Shevelove and Larry Gelbart with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, it is a burlesque of burlesque. Not the kind with "grinders," although there were a few of those, but the "baggy pants" kind of burlesque. The theatre of double takes and pratfalls. Nothing can make you forget your troubles faster than a good old-fashioned belly laugh and the talented group of entertainers in the Studio production provides just that.

Dick Bird as Pseudolus, a slave in the house of Senex, narrates the production and carries the show on his shoulders. A talented comedian, Mr. Bird does nothing more than steal scene after scene from the rest of the cast. Mr. Bird is a local theatre favorite and when given something he can sink his teeth into, he shows his professional prowess.

Buck Buchanan as Senex, a lecherous old man who is a leap from being over the hill, gives Bird a run for his money. Buchanan is obviously a trained talent. He had a gleam in his eye that led us to believe that he relished every moment of his role. It was obvious to us that he is an expert at petting, patting and pinching.

Hysterium, as portrayed by Milton Hayes, would make the White Rabbit of "Alice in Wonderland" seem as though he were on tranquilizers. Mr. Hayes played the part of an easily excited, naive slave to perfection. And as a female impersonator, he was the ugliest woman we have ever seen.

Don Chambers, who possesses a beautiful singing voice, had the taxing role of Miles Gloriosus, a Roman officer with a narcissus complex as big as the cast. Mr. Chambers has a great deal of stage presence and a natural acting talent.

The cast of this production is so large that we cannot mention each player as we would like. The young courtesans are all extremely good looking and well endowed. The ingenue lead, Miss Eliane Yates, is an attractive young blonde with a lovely figure and a voice to match. In her duet with Robert Dreggors, as Hero, the son of Senex and Domina, also a fine young talent, she proved it.

Mona Fletcher as Domina, the tyranical wife of Senex, Ed Shinbrot as the procuror Marcus Lycus, and Jim Scott as Erronius were all well cast and did justice to their every scene.

The courtesans in the persons of Leslee Stanton, Linda Glenn, Lynn Burgess, Gwen Bennett and Dianna Lockwood looked and acted as we would imagine courtesans did. However, we wished that they had put a little more oomph in their dance numbers—more Tempest Storm and less Martha Graham.

The Studio Theatre, noted for flawless productions, slipped up this time with canned music. In our opinion, it did not detract from the production as a whole, but it must have made it terribly difficult for the performers. This probably accounted for the delay on stage of picking up song cues from pre-taped music by Tom Fordham.

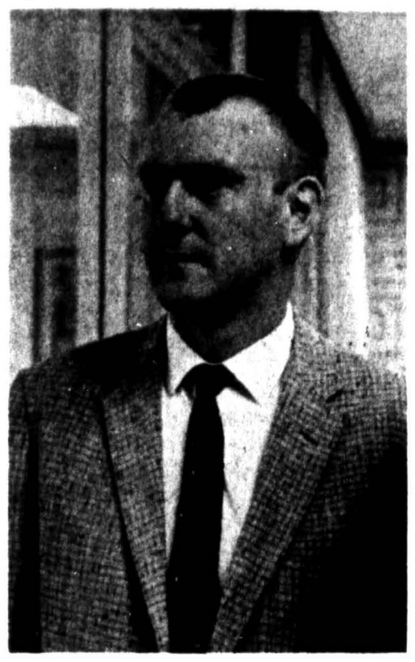
Also, the Proteans, Larry Young, Allan Yates and L. Peter Washow were all guilty of being a bit overambitious. In their eagerness to please a laughing audience they tended to exaggerate which detracted from their performance instead of adding to it. We are sure that as the production progresses they will calm down somewhat and show some control.

Mike Keller, the director, has again taken a group of amateurs and made them seem professional. He is an excellent teacher as well as a fine director .

The sets and costumes as designed by Bob Evans and Judy Evans, respectively, were very well executed as they always are at the Studio.

The plot is as old as the theatre. Boy seeks girl, boy gets girl. We would discuss it thoroughly, except that we would rather have you see it yourself. And anyway, it would take an extra column to describe it. Complications galore!

This production should have an excellent six weeks run. We must compliment the producers, the Evans family, for their selection of plays for this season as of this writing.



DR. ANDERSON

New president of the Medical Staff of Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula is Dr. John A. Anderson. He succeeds Dr. William B. Wenner.

Other doctors who are new officers of the staff for 1967 are Benjamin Richards, president-elect; Tom Morris, vice president; Russell Pratt, secretary; James D. Niebel, treasurer; Donald Dubrasich, member-at-large.

Comedy To Open At Circle Next Week

"Any Wednesday," a happy comedy, is the Community Theatre's contribution to the holiday season. Opening December 30, the smash Broadway hit will run for seven weeks at the Circle Theatre.

The title refers to the day of the week John Cleeves, successful businessman, takes time off from his suburban family and business pursuits to pursue his mistress, the young and fascinating Ellen Gordon, whom he has established in his company's tax-deductible executive suite. When a new secretary actually sends an out-of-town client and—then—Mrs. Cleeves to the executive suite, the merriment begins.

The Carmel production of this frothy, sophisticated comedy will star Marcia Rider as Ellen. Bill Scholefield will portray a millionaire for the second time when he assumes the role of John Cleeves.

Margaret Phillips, as Dorothy Cleeves, is a seasoned performer in all phases of off and on-stage theatre. Newcomer Richard Barry Schriebman, playing Cass Henderson, is an Army lieutenant stationed locally and hails from New York.

"Any Wednesday" will play every Friday, Saturday and Sunday night at 8:30 p.m. Reservations may be made by calling 624-2669.

Joint DAR Luncheon

On December 7, Mrs. Donald Spicer, Regent California State Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was guest of honor and speaker at a joint luncheon meeting of the Monterey Peninsula, Santa Cruz, Pajaro Valley and Salinas chapters of the DAR. Mrs. Duncan Murray, regent of the local Commodore Sloat Chapter, was official hostess. Other state officers present were Mrs. Thomas Coffee of Modesto, vice regent; Mrs. George Herlihy of San Marino, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank La Cauza, assistant recording secretary. Past national vice-president and past national registrar, Mrs. J. Randolph Kennedy of Pebble Beach, was also honored. Seated with them at the head table were the three visiting chapter regents, Mrs. E. W. Smith of Watsonville, Mrs. E. O. Coffin of Santa Cruz and Mrs. Gladys Jewett of Salinas.

Meeting Set To Discuss Transient Lodging Law

Representatives of the Carmel Innkeepers Association have been asked by Councilmen Herbert Blanks and Eben Whittlesey to discuss with them proposed city council action to eliminate illegal motel-type uses in the residence zone. The conference is set for Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the city hall. All persons favoring elimination of non-conforming lodging house uses in the same zone also are asked to attend and express their views, also all persons who now rent lodgings in the residence zone.

A report submitted to the city council by Blanks and Whittlesey, both former Mayors of Carmel, aroused adverse comment from the public at the December 7 council meeting. The report recommended amendment of regulations now controlling lodging permits and transient rentals in the residence (R-1) district, also an amortization period for existing nonconforming motel-type operations in this zone. It was the latter proposal that brought objections from the public, also a clause which stated that it would be unlawful for lodgings to be rented for less than a 28-day period. This would eliminate overnight accommodations.

Proposed in the Blanks-Whittlesey report was a 20-year amortization period, or elimination of any non-conforming existing motel-type use in the residence zone upon change of ownership.

Findings of the report were:

(1) That transient uses in the R-1 district create conditions inconsistent with the zoning objectives of this city.

(2) That there appears to be an increasing number of commercial motel-type uses of residences in the R-1 district.

(3) That, because of non-enforcement of existing laws, it appears desirable to permit a reasonable amortization period for any existing transient facilities in the R-1 district.

(4) That a proposed change in the municipal code would provide for control of any future transient uses in the R-1 district and would permit the eventual elimination of existing uses.

The clause in the report referring to eventual elimination of existing uses stated that premises in the R-1 district which have been used for transient lodgings on or prior to December 1, 1966, and have been registered with the city clerk prior to June 30, 1967, may continue for the duration of ownership existing at the time new regulations are adopted, but in no event longer than January 1, 1987.

The new regulations, similar to those now existing, allow four persons to occupy lodgings in a single dwelling in the residence zone after a rooming house permit has been obtained from the city clerk and the premises approved by the city's building inspector for a period of 28 days or longer.

No action on the report was taken by the council after Councilman William Sefton asked that the matter be continued until Blanks and Whittlesey had met with members of the Carmel Innkeepers Association. Sefton suggested that such a consultation might "prevent litigation."

Ashton Stanley, president of the innkeepers association and managing owner of Colonial Terrace Inn, a hostelry in the residence zone, also requested such a conference.

Stanley told the council that he was not unmindful of problems existing in Carmel in relation to transient lodging accommodattions in the residence zone. However, he was concerned about inequities in the proposed corrections for this situation. They overlooked rights which should be sustained, he maintained, and urged that Blanks and Whittlesey, also representatives of the innkeepers association, through joint exploration, help the city council reach a just conclusion in respect to new regulation.

"My interests are personally involved," Stanley stated. He doubted that he would be able to recapture his investment, under the proposed amortization, also questioned the legality of the proposal.

Lieutenant Colonel C. A. De Camp also objected to the report.

"I seem to sense a spirit in the city council that the lodging practice is detrimental in itself," he declared, then deplored that he, as a lodging house keeper in the residence zone, had not been consulted by Blanks and Whittlesey. The role of lodging house keepers is not detrimental to Carmel, he stated, and distributed copies of a magazine, "B. C. Motorist," to each councilman in an effort to have them discover the verity of his statement.

Blanks said he realized the report prepared by him and Whittlesey affected the lives of a good many people in the city. It was not perfect, but in the form presented to the council December 7 would give the city council and the public some idea of the thinking on the matter, also give recognition to a problem which exists and is inimical to the best interests of Carmel—and must be solved. The proposed revisions were reasonable, he stated.

Whittlesey remarked that the regulation proposals in the report were devised so as to be as near equable as possible. He added that a legal problem had arisen in respect to the amortization proposal and requested continuance of the matter, which was granted.

Whittlesey also stated that any legislation which the city adopts, in respect to lodgings in the residence zone, will probably affect the livelihood of many persons who augment income by carrying on time-honored practices, in many cases unobjectionable and important to Carmel.

"The main concern of the city council," he emphasized, "is due to change in our town. We find there are dangers from lodging house abuse.

RADIO PROGRAM

"The Promise of Christmas that Cannot Fade" is the title of this Sunday's Christian Science radio series "The Bible Speaks to You." It will be heard at 8:45 a.m. over station KDON. It will tell how the Christmas spirit can and should be a permanent part of men's lives.

Christmas Banquet

The tables in Carmel High School's cafeteria were bright with sprays of holly for the Girls' Athletic Association banquet on December 9. Guests were Miss Dorothy Wright, high school vice principal, Mrs. Phyllis Crockett, physical education instructor, and GAA alumnae from the classes of 1964, 1965 and 1966. Alumnae who were able to attend were Barbara Murphy, Sue Whitcomb and Sherry May, 1964; Jean Ernst, Linda Meyers, Judy Eisenberger, Kathy Bingham and Shirley Harrah, 1965; Nancy Tucker, Marilyn Raeburn, Donna Carter, Sue Rzeppa and Ann Mewhirter, 1966.

The event dedicated "To the enjoyment GAA has brought us, past and present," included the initiation of four new members, Connie Dudley, Janet Sprague, Barbara Norwick and Kay McCombs. This group presented an amusing skit of a mock hockey game. Another entertaining skit, utilizing a shadow screen, was "The Night Before Christmas," put on by the GAA council.

In award ceremonies, GAA President Susie Lang received her block letter, based on 500 points, and Sandy Mayfield her numeral, based on 300 points. Members of Micky Miyamoto's senior basketball team were given insignia patches.

These bells ring out a note of thanks and our warmest holiday greetings.

PARTY PLANS . . .

By Phyllis Jervey

A NIGHT IN MERRY OLD ENGLAND

The Mark Thomas Inn was transformed, to the great pleasure of delighted guests, for A Merry Night in Old England with every detail carried out to perfection by the new manager, Graeme Mackenzie, and his enthusiastic staff. Just in time for Peninsulans to enjoy this gala introduction to the holiday season, we gathered in the English Pub especially set up for the evening of December 12. Robert Smith, inspired artist from the Big Sur country, had recreated the warmth of an English public house, complete with fireplace and bartenders in bowlers and white shirts who dispensed such English drinks as Whitbreads ale, Pimm's No. 1 Cup, P.G.G. (pink gin with Plymouth), gimlets and lager with lime. Hot roasted chestnuts in wicker baskets were served at small red-clothed tables. To add to the very real feeling of being in London, a charming "Cockney" lady, Mary Williams of Monterey, passed fragrant fresh violet bouquets to the ladies. Old English songs and Christmas carols filled the air, but softly, so that everyone could become acquainted before going on to the beautifully decorated dining hall for the core of the evening, the marvelous menu below.

ENGLISH CHRISTMAS DINNER
Thick Ox Tail Soup with Cheese Straws
Hot Ha'Penny Loaf of Bread
English Roast Sirloin of Beef au Jus with Yorkshire Pudding and Horseradish Sauce
Roast Potatoes
Cauliflower au Gratin
Flaming Plum Pudding

The following recipes were cheerfully given for this exclusive "first printing" in PARTY PLANS by Fritz Hillebrand, executive chef at Mark Thomas Inn.

HOT ROASTED CHESTNUTS

Make a cross with sharp knife on flat side of chestnuts then oil them lightly and place on cookie sheet in 400 F. oven. Roast until tender inside. Toss and stir with long-handled fork or spoon so they won't scorch. Traditionally, these are roasted over live coals by chestnuts vendors, but they are just as good roasted in your fireplace over red embers. Delicious either way, served hot. Your guests will sigh with delight as we did that memorable night.

Another quaint novelty were the small warm "Ha'Penny" loaves of home-baked bread at each table on cutting boards with bread knives and butter. Slicing and buttering one's own was half the fun!

Thick Ox Tail Soup

Four lbs. ox tails, disjointed; 1 lb. onions; 1 lb. carrots; butter; 4 qts. veal stock; salt, pepper, sherry wine and Worcestershire to taste; flour to thicken.

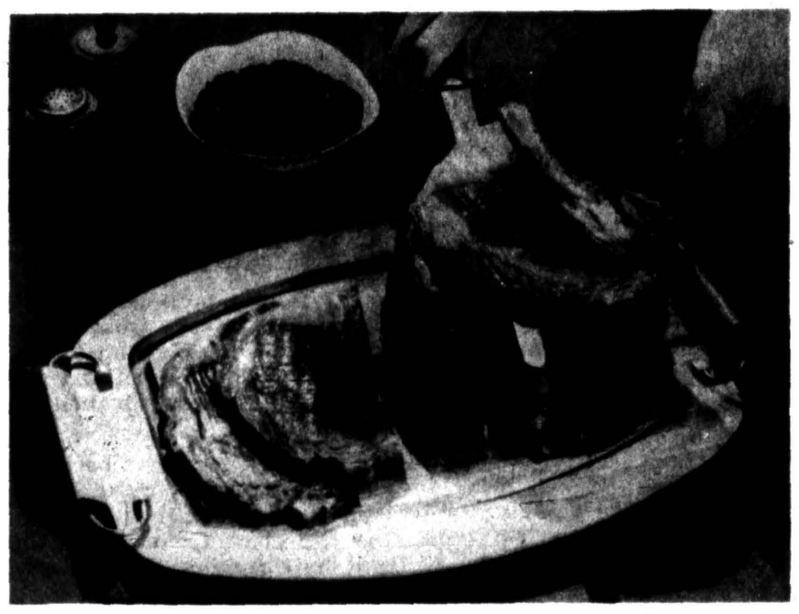
Wash ox tails and bones. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and fry in butter until very brown. Drain and put aside. Saute diced onions and carrots in butter. Next, add the above to ox tails and bones. Put in soup pot with veal stock. Simmer 3 hours or until meat is tender. Strain soup, dice the meat (discard bones) and put back into kettle. Bring to the boiling point; add sherry and Worcestershire to taste. Correct for more salt and pepper. Thicken with flour, blended with sherry, and simmer until right consistency (like cream soup). Serve piping hot.

Cheese Straws

Two cups sifted flour; 2 cups softened butter; salt; grated Parmesan cheese; paprika.

Mix by hand and lightly roll out on floured board, then fold over three times. Lightly roll and fold three times more, then sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese, salt and paprika; roll up and cut in thin strips (should be about ¾ inches long). Bake until golden brown in 375 F. oven for about 10-12 minutes.

The superb "baron" of roast sirloin of beef was done to a turn, charcoaled on the outside and very, very rare inside for the men's approval and relish. There was plenty of nice hot natural juice, and what's more, the service was speedy and impeccable. A rare treat indeed, no matter how you sliced it. Freshly grated horseradish, mixed with a little cream, was on hand and the Yorkshire pudding was "out of this world."



ROAST BEEF FOR MERRY HOLIDAY FARE

Yorkshire Pudding
(Serves 12)

Four cups sifted flour; 6 eggs; 4 cups whole milk; ½ tsp. grated nutmeg; salt and pepper to taste; 2 tbsps. finely chopped parsley; beef drippings.

Combine flour, eggs, and milk in electric mixer or beat by hand. Cover batter and place in refrigerator for an hour. Heat beef drippings. Add parsley, nutmeg, salt and pepper to batter, beat well, then pour into muffin tins which contain a teaspoonful of beef drippings in each one. Fill only ¾ full. Bake at 375 F. for 25 minutes until crisply brown. Serve piping hot. This traditional Yorkshire pudding is the accepted and expected accompaniment to English roast beef. The drippings are obtained from the pan in which meat is roasted (no cover, no water is added).

Roast Potatoes

Peel and cut large Idaho potatoes in quarters, wash and dry, then trim edges. Melt butter in roasting pan and add potatoes, seasoning with salt and pepper. Roast at 375 F. until well browned and ever so crisp. What perfection for your "meat-and-potato" man!

Christmas Services In Carmel Churches

The holy symbolism of the birth of Christ will be observed on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day in the churches of Carmel with services of worship including special music and ceremonies.

Carmel Mission Basilica

In Carmel Mission Basilica, founded by Father Junipero Serra in 1771, a High Pontifical Midnight Mass will be celebrated by the Most Reverend Bishop Harry A. Clinch on Christmas Eve. A choir of children and adults will sing.

On Christmas Day masses will be celebrated at 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11 a.m., also at 12:30 p.m. There will be no 5:30 p.m. mass.

Christian Science Church

"God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ."

This passage from II Corinthians will be the Golden Text for the Lesson-Sermon titled, "Christian Science," to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday, Christmas Day.

Scriptural passages include the story of the birth of Jesus and the adoration of the Magi as well as many references to Jesus' healing ministry.

One of the related selections from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will be this:

"Christ's Christianity is the chain of scientific being reappearing in all ages, maintaining its obvious correspondence with the scriptures and uniting all periods in the design of God."

The Church of the Wayfarer

On Christmas Eve at 7:30 p.m., a Service of Carols and Candles will be held at the Church of the Wayfarer. A feature of the evening will be the passing of the living flame from the candles on the altar to all worshippers. On arrival, each person will be given a small candle. At the close of the service, the altar light will be passed by the minister, the Reverend Alexander C. Bryans, to the ushers, who, in turn, will pass it to those in the pews. All will rise and sing "Joy to the World." There will be singing by the adult choir during the service.

The Sacrament of the Holy Communion will be held in the Little Chapel at the Church of the Wayfarer on Christmas Eve at 4 p.m.

On Christmas Day, services of worship will be held at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

All Saints' Episcopal Church

At All Saints' Episcopal Church on Saturday at 4 p.m., there will be a Christmas Eve Family Service of carols and lessons read by members of the parish—Ellen Williams, Brian Smith, Nicholas Sturch, Annette Thorn, Lieutenant Michael Raggett (USN), Colonel Willard Smith (USA ret.), also the parish clergy. The Children's Choirs will sing.

On Christmas Eve at 11 p.m., there will be Festival Eucharist with sermon by the rector, The Reverend David Hill. Celebrant will be the headmaster of the church's day school, the Reverend Peter Farmer. Preludial music will include carols by the Senior Choir; a Handel flute and harpsichord concerto played by Karen Draper and Robert Forbes; a Haydn trumpet concerto played by Gregory Sprung and Mr. Forbes; and special harp music played by Mrs. William Ballard.

Christmas Day there will be Holy Communion at All Saints' at 8 a.m., Festival Eucharist at 10:30 a.m. Choral Evensong will be at 5 p.m.

Carmel Presbyterian Church

The traditional Christmas Eve Candlelight Service at the Carmel Presbyterian Church will begin at 11 p.m. according to Dr. George Hunter Hall, pastor. Special music will be presented by trumpeters, also by the Bell Choir which will play carols around the patio Christmas tree at 10:30 p.m. Mrs. Douglas Graham will sing "O Holy Night" by Adams, accompanied by James Farlinger, organist. The Chancel Choir under the direction of Mrs. Farlinger will include a special Christmas anthem. Dr. Hall's brief Christmas story is entitled "The Man Who Missed Christmas." Every member of the community is invited to attend this beautiful and unique Christmas Eve service from 11 until midnight.

Services at the Carmel Presbyterian Church on Christmas morning will be at the usual hours of 9:30 and 11 o'clock, with special music and a sermon by Dr. George Hunter Hall, pastor, on the theme "The Day That Changed the World." There will be infant baptism, also, on this very special morning. Classes in the Church School will dismiss so that children above three years old may accompany their parents to the worship services.

Community Church

The Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula will hold its annual Christmas Eve Service from 7:30 to 8:15 p.m. at River School. The Christmas Story will be told and carols sung. This service is for children, parents and friends of all ages.

Christmas morning, members of the Community Church will meet at the new church site in lower Carmel Valley for a short service in the uncompleted meetinghouse at 10:30 a.m.

What s Going on Here?

by B. ROWE

CARMEL FOUNDATION
Town House

Special Event . . . CHRISTMAS DINNER, December 25, 2-4 p.m. The cost is $2 and reservations are asked.

In January, Carmel Foundation will offer a tour to San Francisco with lunch on board a luxury cruise ship. Details will be announced later.

HACIENDA CARMEL

The art of keeping a secret is something most of us wish we could, but somehow, seldom do successfully.

Three couples at Hacienda Carmel decided to give an unusual party. To make it different and exciting they sent out mysterious invitations and were able to carry off and keep their identity a complete secret right up to the exact "hour of truth."

The invitations casually asked the guests to keep Wednesday evening of last week open. A little later another invitation was received by the guests telling them the place and time of the party. This time the invitations were signed "Me and Mama."

Right up to the deadline no one was able to discover who the hosts were . . . Finally someone suggested that they fool their hosts and all go masked—which they did. So it was, and on the evening of December 14 people started arriving at Casa Fiesta. Cocktails were served . . . people conversed . . . Neil Armstrong's combo played . . . everyone danced . . . still no sign of the host! However, everyone was enjoying a delightful time. Suddenly the drummer, with a dramatic fanfare, called all to attention and asked "Will the Real Me and Mama please stand up?" When Me and Mama stood up they turned out to be Mr. and Mrs. Amen Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Phelan.

Thunderous applause greeted them — "and the Band Played On."

CARMEL VALLEY MANOR

On Saturday evening communion service will be celebrated in the Meeting House.

Tomorrow evening will be one of surprises with carols, candlelight and Santa Claus. This fun and festivity will be in the Meeting House.

FOREST HILL MANOR

Christmas at Forest Hill Manor. . . . Pardon our play with names. . . . Manor members decided to indulge in a little name-calling, in a LYTE mood, to WARD off depression, and to FOSTER a LOVE of fellowMANN. Such a spirit will enable them to COPE with any situation.

The EYRE is filled with the fragrance of pine CONE, and the yULEtide melody of NOWELL, Noel, NOWELL, Noel rings out.

Since Christmas falls on Sunday this year, the faithful set out for church. Some are LUTHERans with coins, not all NICHOLS we PRAY, jingling in their purses. SomeHOWE everyone is in a joyful mood, and willing to wait until the luscious birds, BROWNING in the oven are ready. That is, all the YOUNG folks, mostly boys—DAVID-SONS, GARRI-SONS, GUNNI-SONS and DICKENSONS.

SNOW, visible on the mountains, is a reminder that there is also much water in which a HERRON might WADE. No one wants to sit in the PARKE these days. Yet, if there is a doubting THOMAS among the members, thinking that this will last, let that one take FRENCH leave, lest others blow him to SMITHereens. The day will surely come when there will be a GREENFIELD, a fruitful ORCHARD, and a ROSE in bloom along FAIRBANKS.

CANTERBURY WOODS

Those who felt the urge to help trim the Christmas trees at Canterbury Woods were asked to join in the popcorn, cranberry stringing party held last week. Mrs. Bell, assistant administrator, had plenty of "material" on hand. A pleasant afternoon was spent while busy hands accomplished the job and the happy result is that "The Halls Are All Decked" Beautiful, too!

PINPOINT PROFILES
Colonel E. J. Hardy

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet—the words repeat
Of peace on earth, goodwill to men!

Colonel E. J. Hardy of Canterbury Woods remembers his last Christmas with the U. S. Armed Forces. It was in 1943 at Camp Livingston, Louisiana, just one year before his retirement.

Entertainment, dinner and a fine orchestra made the day a pleasant one for the colonel and Mrs. Hardy. His staff and their families all joined in the festivities that day. The respect and affection he had for his men was mutual. They all worked together as a team and as a team accomplished their objectives.

Many honors were bestowed on Colonel Hardy during the 27 years he spent in the Army. Among the medals he received are the Purple Heart and the Legion d' Honneur presented to him by Field Marshal Petain of France in 1910 for his service to the French government.

As we talked he told us of his many tours of duty around the world—and he has three huge volumes as proof. One, of special interest, was a complete documentary of pictures of World War I taken by his unit. To quote the colonel, "I was a good paper soldier." This means he kept a complete daily record of his stations and assignments given him. It was during World War I that he was

Leonard Heller

Leonard Geoffrey Heller, artist, patron of the arts and one of the founders of the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art Association (formerly the Monterey Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Arts), died Friday night in a local hospital after a long illness.

For a number of years prior to his death, Mr. Heller dedicated much of his time and energy toward the establishment of a permanent art museum here. From the inception of the AFA in 1959, he served as a member of the board of trustees and was its president for two years until he resigned last September. He was also vice president of the Coordinating Arts Council of Monterey County, a director of the Monterey History and Art Association and a member of the Carmel Art Association.

Born in San Francisco on October 27, 1893, Mr. Heller attended preparatory school in Switzerland, also the University of California at Berkeley. His art studies, begun at the California School of Fine Arts in San Francisco, were continued at the Carmel Art Institute, Monterey Peninsula College and as a pupil of Gene Baker of Carmel Valley.

Mr. Heller was a veteran of World Wars I and II. In the latter, he served as an Air Force intelligence officer and retired with the rank of lieutenant colonel at its close. Until his retirement in 1955, he was engaged in the import trade in San Francisco. Two years later, following travel in Europe and Mexico, he established his home at 16th and Camino Real.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Diana Hill of San Francisco; a son, Ronald L. Heller of Los Angeles; and a grandson, Fentress Hill III of San Francisco.

Private services were held Monday at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, Pacific Grove, with the Reverend David Hill of All Saints' Episcopal Church officiating. The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Friends wishing to make contributions in memory of Mr. Heller may do so to the Endowment Fund, Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art Association, Box 4087, Carmel.

Mary Powell

Family services for Mrs. Mary M. Powell were held Saturday in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, with the Reverend David Hill of All Saints' Episcopal Church officiating. Mrs. Powell died Friday in of local nursing home after a period of failing health.

With her husband, the late Dr. Cuthbert Powell, she came to Carmel from Denver, Colorado, after Dr. Powell's retirement in 1953 from his medical practice in that city.

She leaves a son, Cuthbert Powell Jr. of Carmel; a daughter, Mrs. George A. (Virginia) Newton of St. Louis, Missouri; and a sister, Mrs. Elliott Staford of Sedalia, Missouri.

Inurnment took place in El Carmelo Cemetery Columbarium, Pacific Grove. The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Friends wishing to make memorial contributions may do so to the Denver Symphony, Denver, Colorado, or to the Monterey County Symphony Association, Box 3851, Carmel.

Bank Syndicate Buys MPC Bonds

A Bank of America N. T. & S. A. underwriting group on December 13 bought the $2,600,000 bond issue of the Monterey Peninsula Junior College District.

The Bank of America syndicate paid a premium of $1,118 for 5%, 3.70% and 3-¾% bonds. The dollar bid was 100.043. Net interest cost to the district was 3.8248%. The bonds were reoffered to investors at a dollar price to yield from 3.65% to 3.75%, according to maturity Jan. 1, 1968-1982.

Bank of America and its associates finance much of the new school construction for California's steadily growing educational needs. The bank and the syndicates it manages bought more than $748 million of California municipal bonds in the past 12 months.

Other members of the bank group which purchased the Monterey Peninsula Junior College District bonds were Blythe & Co., Inc.; Dean Witter & Co.; J. Barth & Co.; Stone & Youngberg; Kenower, MacArthur & Co.; Mitchum, Jones & Templeton, Inc.; Walston & Co., Inc.; and C. N. White & Co., Inc.

Cauliflower au Gratin

Break fresh firm cauliflower into flowerets. Boil in salted water until just tender, not soft. Put into baking dish and cover with well seasoned cream sauce; add butter and grated Cheddar cheese. Bake until piping hot and a golden crust is formed.

As we gave directions for classic plum puddings in PARTY PLANS on November 24, we are foregoing Chef Hillebrand's fine recipe and giving you instead a Tipsy Pudding which is served on Pan American Airways' flights to England.

Tipsy Pudding

(Serves 6)

Four eggs; ½ cup sugar; 1 cup sifted flour; ¾ cup rum. Beat the eggs in a bowl. Gradually add the sugar, beating until thick and light. Add the flour, mixing smoothly until well blended. Preheat oven to 350 F. Butter 6 custard cups and dust lightly with sugar. Divide the mixture evenly among the cups. Bake in a 350 F. oven for 20 minutes or until set and lightly browned. Pour 2 tbsps. of rum on each pudding. Serve cold.

Not just incidentally, the plum puddings at "A Night in Merry Old England" were paraded in review, blazing with blue-reddish flames and so exuberant with brandy! Ah to be again in lovely England! And we were, via the Mark Thomas Inn, thanks to Mr. Mackenzie.

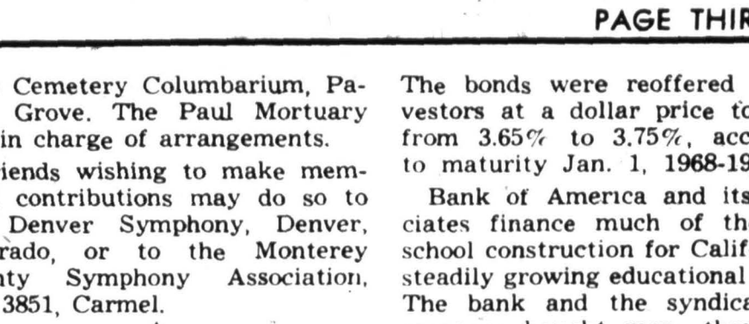
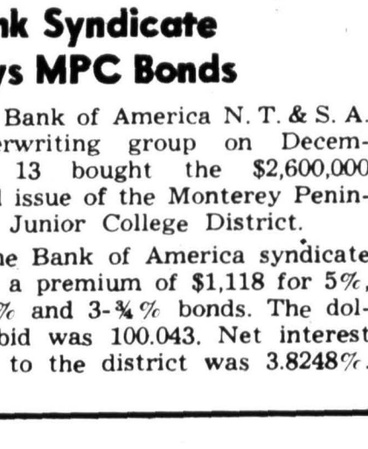
WORLD'S LARGEST MOVER





The holiday season has once again come to the Monterey Peninsula bringing the areas traditional joys and festivities.

Pacific Grove's Singing Christmas Tree and Carmel's Christmas Bach Oratorio provide residents with the sounds of the season.

Santa Claus has thrilled youngsters by leading Monterey and Pacific Grove parades and hosting the annual Santa Claus Special Train Ride and Seaside Fire Department's Children's Christmas Party.

All of us at Pacific Telephone on the Monterey Peninsula want to take this opportunity to wish you and your family the happiest of holidays and a most prosperous new year. We're very proud of the role we've been able to play in the Peninsula's development and look forward to serving and sharing in its future in the new year to come.

May I extend our best wishes for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

given special training in France in the new radio procedures then, in turn, trained men in this field.

"We started with ten men," continued the colonel, "but, at the end, we had 60 officers and 500 men working in this unit."

Over the years he has seen active duty in three wars. With a grin he said, "There were times when I had to shake up the troops and I know I have been called something other than colonel. Altogether, Army life has been a very satisfying experience. Now, I am trying to persuade my grandson, Johnny, to enter the military and make it a career." His daughter, Carolyn Leach, lives in Salinas with her husband and three children. This is where the Colonel will be spending Christmas, 1966.

Colonel Hardy came to live at Canterbury Woods after his wife's passing. He says of his life here, "This is what I call anchored in Snug Harbor—Canterbury Woods" He has come a long way from his birthday in Edinburgh, Scotland. At the age of 17 he joined the Territorials—which is the same as our National Guard, eventually migrated to Australia and to California in 1905.

In 1908 he joined the U. S. Cavalry in the National Guard. His was one of three regiments that went to the border looking for the Mexican bandit, Pancho Villa, but never found him.

It was a proud day, indeed, in the year 1917 in San Francisco when he was commissioned as a captain. After many years of study and subsequent promotions, he received his full colonelcy in 1946.

After talking to Colonel Hardy for two hours, I prepared to leave. I casually remarked how much I admired the Scots' sense of humor.

"Do you know why we have this sense of humor?" he asked. "No", I said, "why?" "It's a gift!" he replied, "we never refuse anything that's free," and with a grin, he bade me farewell.

Christmas Creations Lucky Ticket Holder

David McDonald's ticket to the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art Association's Christmas Creations show at the Mark Thomas Inn December 6 and 7 brought him a week's vacation for two at Kona Plantation, Hawaii, plus round-trip fare to the Islands via United Air Lines. Other door prize winners were Smillka Goynich of Carmel, a lady's diamond wrist watch; Mrs. M. A. Scheffer, a sculpture by Traylor Dunwoody; Mrs. Jake Butts and Mrs. Henry Huntington III of Pebble Beach, Miss Mary Simmons of Pacific Grove, each a day at the Elizabeth Arden Salon in San Francisco. Previously unannounced awards went to Mrs. M. E. Etienne Jr. of Salinas, a basket-hamper of cheeses from Mediterranean Market; Mrs. Diana Hill of San Francisco, an original silver and jewel pendant by Helen Beecher.

Scores of guests attended the gala champagne preview of the annual benefit show to swell the association's fund for a permanent museum building. Many vied in purchasing the original holiday creations donated for the event.

Mrs. Frederic (Barbara) Rainer's charming mobile fashioned with angel-shaped cookies and colored yarn was awarded first in the amateur division. Other amateur winners included Mrs. Robert Work, Mrs. Paul Riebe and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Parker.

In the children's division, Barbara Fielding received first prize, Steven Weingarten, second, and Barbara Messier, third.

Professional category winner was James Spohn, with second honors going to Vera Jackson. Special prizes were awarded Mrs. Emilio Odello and Mrs. Joseph Manestar.

Holiday-garbed hostesses who greeted guests included Mrs. Frederick Stanley, Mrs. Shreve Archer Jr., Mrs. Roderick Dewar, Mrs. F. Robert Smith, Mrs. Robert Bray, Mrs. Jack Miller, Mrs. Kenneth Ehrman and Mrs. Jacqueline Ball. Mrs. William Arnold was general chairman for the event.

Christmas Services

St. Philip's Lutheran

Christmas events of the St. Philip's Lutheran Church include Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services.

The Christmas Eve service of Candlelight and Carols will be held in the wedding chapel at the Highlands Inn, 7:30 p.m. Special music will be provided by the choir and a children's group from the church. The Rev. J. Bernhard Bretheim, pastor of the congregation, will bring a meditation entitled "Gifts for the Christ-Child." Carolling in connection with the Inn's Yule Log ceremony will follow for all who stay another hour.

On Christmas Day at 11 a.m., a Festival Worship Service will be held at Carmel Middle School, the temporary meeting place of St. Philip's. This service will include a message from the Christmas Gospel, "The Christ-Child's Gift to Us," special Christmas anthems, receiving of new members and the giving of a special Christmas offering to the world wide benevolences of the church.

POLICE AWARDS

Five members of the Carmel Police Department were among 24 law enforcement officers in the county to receive certificates on successful completion of an 80-hour course in the Police Supervisory Academy at Monterey Peninsula College last week. They are Sergeants Del Wermuth and Lester Fletcher, also officers Edd Fischer, Walter Boyle and Peter Koenen. Police Chief Clyde Klaumann, chairman of the supervisory board of the college's police science department, made the presentations.

Wag of the Week

Carmel Planning Commissioner Fred Keeble came up with a wonderful suggestion after hearing a fellow commissioner, Mrs. Dorothea Roberts, complain that Carmel business people sweep out their stores and sidewalks, littering the streets, AFTER the street sweeper has covered the commercial area. "Could we get an attachment to the street sweeper that would sweep the litter back into the stores?" asked Mr. Keeble.

RLS GLEE CLUB CAROLS

A new Christmas tradition began at Del Monte Lodge when the glee club from Robert Louis Stevenson School sang carols in the lounge for guests and other interested persons shortly before the Pebble Beach private boys' school closed for the holidays.

REPORTS FROM RLS

HAPPY HOLIDAYS AND HAPPY GRADES

Best wishes are extended from the RLS staff and administration for a happy holiday. The Christmas program was one of the most beautiful ever, with some 400 people crowding the lovely Erdman Chapel to hear students and guests salute this Holy Season. Ernie Ford opened with his wonderful reading of "What Christmas Is" followed by the choir, soloists and the readings of the Nine Lessons.

In addition to the formal service on the campus, there were a number of other special holiday programs and services that deserve to be noted: The choir gave a special performance at the Del Monte Lodge singing carols and seasonal music; many of the Catholic boys attended special services at the Carmel Mission Basilica during the week in addition to their regular Sunday Mass; Gary Novack, with many others, as schedules permitted, observed Hanukkah every day at 5:10 p.m. with a lighting of the candles; and winners in the Christmas tree decoration contest this year were Tom Huntington, Don Hatch and Robert Melone.

A warm and spiritual beginning for the holidays.

Happiness Is Being On The Honor Roll

For an outstanding number of students this year Christmas came early as grades for the second marking period were announced by Academic Dean Frank Keith. Ninety-six students made the honor roll. This is the highest number to grace this academic plateau of achievement in the history of the school, also a 50% increase over the last grading period, and showed the highest percentage gain in acamedics that the school has seen. Because of the growth of so many, students who did as well as last grading period often found themselves dropped in class standings as so many improved.

Some 42 others just missed the Honor Roll by less than 3.0 points so that half the students enrolled at Stevenson were in the higher levels of performance. Twenty-one scholars were honored with Faculty Honors with Arlen Chase making 100.0 for his second perfect showing this year. Among others making Faculty Honors were top debators Terry Talbot and Bob Howard, Student Body President Larry Kuechler and Vice-President Steve Barlow, also Tusitala Editor Nick Giustina, Debate Manager Gary Novack, a winning debator, Eric Haas, who took the last "B" tournament, and Frosh-Soph basketball star Art Lara. Academics were combined with many other activities—the honor roll is filled with student leaders, writers, speakers and athletes—which shows a great balance in achievement.

Headmaster Robert U. Ricklefs, in commending the student body for their honors, was high in his praise for the newcomers to the Honor Roll. "Happiness is being on the Honor Roll" might well sum up the holiday wishes of us all.

FACULTY HONORS

THE NATIVITY Julian P. Graham Studio Photo

The above Christmas tableau is on display at Del Monte Lodge. The first to admire the creation were two four-year-olds, Richard Julian, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Julian of Pebble Beach, and Peggy Rissel, the daughter of Pebble Beach Postmaster William Rissel and Mrs. Rissel. Each figure in the tableau depicting the birth of Christ was made by hand by Mrs. Edythe Plamondon of Carmel. It took her a year to complete the group. The traditional Christmas tree adds to the holiday atmosphere at the lodge.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATION URGES CHRISTMAS CLOSING

The Carmel Business Association firmly endorses the acknowledgment of Monday, December 26, as a part of the Christmas Holiday nationally proclaimed and urges all businesses to observe the day by remaining closed.

Carmel At Christmas

by Eunice Messent

My husband and I drove into Carmel on Christmas late in the afternoon. We had been silent for long stretches en route, for we had just pulled away from our big city life—"lock, stock, and barrel," leaving good positions, home, and friends to make this move. Of course, we had periodically forced casual remarks about the scenery along the way as people do who are trying to bolster each other while covering their own uncertainties.

As we had driven through the dozens of cities and towns strung with metal foil poinsettias, tinsel, and Santa Claus faces, we had tried not to notice their garish greetings, as one does when a raucous commercial follows a moving drama on television.

After what seemed an endless day, we turned off the main highway into our future via Ocean Avenue. The sun had set a while before, leaving a paling sky over the sea. As a sunset, it was only mildly pretty, but its very delicacy made it a perfect background for the towering lighted pine tree at the head of the parkway.

As we parked the car to explore on foot, Christmas carols greeted us, and we noticed that the air was filled with a mixture of fragrances, made up, we decided, of smoke from fireplace chimneys and the aroma of Christmas dinners being cooked in near-by restaurants, all caught up in the sea air as it blew in over the cypress and pines.

The diminutive, assorted shops of varied architecture which lined the street were all decorated in an understated, old world, friendly kind of way.

As I describe this now, as I remember it vividly over the years, it sounds like the most sentimental scented colored postcard one could imagine, with sound effects built in. What makes it significant is that our feeling of suspension between two worlds faded away, and we felt that we had walked into Christmas, literally as well as figuratively, and we knew that we were at home.

Even more important, is that every promise of that first impression has been fulfilled—the refinement, the sophistication, the emphasis on individuality, the intimate relationship between natural beauty and human creativity, intensifying our "love at first sight" of Carmel.

Craig Dancy

News has been received of the death on November 21 of Craig "Rocky" Dancy, 18, son of Mrs. Janet Dancy of Pleasant Hill and the late Lieutenant Commander Dan Albert Dancy, former Carmel residents. The youth died of injuries suffered in an auto accident which occurred when he was returning, after furlough, to his Naval station at Port Hueneme.

After the family established a home here in 1950, Rocky and his brothers and sisters attended Carmel schools. Commander Dancy was an instructor at the Naval Postgraduate School until his death in 1961.

In addition to his mother, Rocky leaves two sisters, Caroline (Candy) and Catharine, who is training for Peace Corps service in Micronesia; and three brothers, Merle (Dusty), Alexander (Sandy), currently stationed with the U. S. Army in Texas, and Christopher.

Military services were held at Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno.

CDCEC BIRTHDAY CAKE

Aage Knudsen, lower left, owner of the Royal Danish Bakery, is shown with two of his assistants putting the finishing touches on a 260-pound cake. The Carmel bakery was commissioned to bake the cake for the tenth anniversary of the Combat Development Experimentation Command at Fort Ord celebrated on Saturday. The frosting was white with red and blue trimming. Each layer was designated with a date and various experimentations were indicated on the layers. The CDCEC patch decorated the top of the cake. Ingredients included 70 pounds of sugar, 45 pounds of butter and three gallons of eggs.

Win State Honor

The architectural firm of Burde and Shaw has been honored by the State of California for the design of the Shell Oil Company service station at the northeast corner of San Carlos and Fifth.

The announcement of the design award in the category of service facilities was received yesterday by Walter Burde and Will Shaw, Carmel residents and partners in the firm. The Carmel service station design was selected by the governor's design award committee.

Presentation ceremonies will be held on December 28 in Pasadena's cultural center, the Gamble House, designed by the late Charles Sumner Greene of Carmel.

Al Hood is the operator of the service station which was completed in January, 1964.

Stock Market Notes

by Hugh Hannon

Sure good to see the stock market respond to good news! The feeling in Washington that President Johnson does not intend to ask Congress for an increase in taxes next year plus an indication of an easing of mortgage money has combined to place an optimistic tone on the market.

Sherman J. Maisel, a Federal Reserve governor and a leading housing economist is quoted as saying "Any general surplus of housing which has bulit up has now disappeared. This means that actual housing starts next year will depend upon the flow of mortgage money which in turn depends on the amount of savings coming into banks."

At the moment it looks like the supply of mortgage money might increase little next year. It's hard to see a boom in residential construction in 1967, but the administration's release of $750 million to the mortgage market (that should translate to 50,000 new mortgages), also Fannie Mae's (Federal National Mortgage) first cut in ten months in the interest rate it pays for short term money, both point to an end to the interest rate spiral.

One of the causes of tight money is interesting. The Savings & Loan industry has been holding its money against the possibility of a disastrous withdrawal of deposits. The disaster never came. In fact, October results were so impressive that the bank system now is in a position to lend more money for mortagges.

Several people have asked me if the recent S.E.C. report on Mutual Funds was in any way a danger to the money they had invested in mutual funds. My answer is NO.

The last legislation that covered mutual funds was in 1940 when mutual funds weren't widely accepted. Now that they are widely accepted the S.E.C. felt they should make a thorough study to see if more legislation was needed. The study showed that mutual funds met a public need and had done a good job. The study concluded that the fees people pay for funds could be reduced and that some legislation might be needed to prevent a conflict of interest when the mutual funds buy stocks from the same brokerage firms that sell the funds.

This study will go to Congress who, most think, will only turn part of the recommendations into legislation.

(Hugh Hannon is with Irving Lundborg & Co. in Carmel.)

Dear Santa . . .

Dear Santa:
"Deck the halls with boughs of holly,
'Tis the season to be jolly."
Dear readers, is this fact or folly?

Pin on twigs of holly berry
'Tis the season to be merry!
Ho! here comes the Christmas fairy!

From the time of Hallowe'en
All this period between
For us, has been devoid and lean.

While we sit in great frustration,
Others mull in contemplation,
Some mysterious equation.

We've two pair of shapely hose,
Five pair of socks complete with toes
I'll need some help in filling those!

So, if I sit upon your knees
And, if I ask you, "pretty please"
Will you heed my ardent pleas?

And if we promise not to hector,
Will you be the magic vector,
And send us a new Planning Director?

"Tinker Belle" von Meier,
Chairman,
Carmel Planning Commission

This Yuletide list is not for me
But for a group set up to be
Workers in the field of artistry,
Now custodians of our history.

'Tis willing hands and earnest hearts
To offer aid to our "Friends of Art"
In form of time, of gifts, or ideas smart
Atop this list which I impart.

Your oldest photos, books and things
Papers, lanterns, songs to sing,
Memorabilia we hope you'll bring
To Sunset History Room by Spring.

For the Forest Theater's use we'll get
A concert grand—that goal is set,
And a piano fund will let
All Carmelites this plan abet.

Contributions great and small
Dear Santa, anything at all
That in an Arts Commissioner's line will fall
Can be left at Carmel's History Hall.

Arts Commissioner,
Barbara Norberg

We finally got our wish of the past several years—a new station. There is nothing more I could ask for. We wish a happy holiday season and a prosperous New Year for everyone in Carmel.

Clyde P. Klaumann
Chief of Police
